Project Overview

PML have been the lead consultants during the Integration of the London Underground Property and Facilities departments into Transport for London. Accommodation strategy and corporate relocation have featured significantly within this process as the Transport for London Group has undergone organisational restructuring as a result the whole range of PML's management skills were utilised.

The Service

- Provision of appropriate planning and scheduling activities
- Space planning and customer interface management
- Management of relocation activities
- Contractor liaison and management

The Benefits

- Minimal downtime for the business
- Efficient and effective allocation of resources
- Integrated holistic approach
- Increased productivity following relocations

The Value of PML

- Significant experience in the provision of bespoke solutions
- Highly competent in the whole range of communicative and management processes
- Demonstrable track record of 'getting it right'
- A multi-disciplined and experienced team
